

Ronald G. Watson

Teacher, Author & Historian

Saturday, September 26th at 3:00 pm
in Town Hall (Ashby High School)

Presentation On: Recollections of Ashby High School 1951

Ron's teaching career began at Ashby High School in 1951. He has many fond memories to share of teaching, students, and coaching basketball at Ashby in the mid twentieth century.

**&

Civil War Diary of George A. Hitchcock

Ron has edited and published Ashby resident George A. Hitchcock's Civil War diary both in its original form and a later version. He will discuss Mr. Hitchcock's views as an soldier and prisoner.

Admission Free,
Donation Appreciated

organized by the Ashby Historical Society

Ronald G. Watson

Teacher, Author & Historian

Saturday, September 26th at 3:00 pm
in Town Hall (Ashby High School)

Presentation On:
Recollections of Ashby
High School 1951

Ron's teaching career began at Ashby High School in 1951. He has many fond memories to share of teaching, students, and coaching basketball at Ashby in the mid twentieth century.

&

Civil War Diary of George A. Hitchcock

Ron has edited and published Ashby resident George A. Hitchcock's Civil War diary both in its original form and a later version. He will discuss Mr. Hitchcock's views as an soldier and prisoner.

Admission Free,
Donation Appreciated

organized by the Ashby Historical Society

